Dear UA Community,

It is with regret that I share with you the news that Chief Human Resources Officer Steve Patin has resigned his position.

Since joining the UA team in October 2019, Steve has proven to be an outstanding leader and a valued member of our leadership team. His accomplishments include managing the COVID-19 transition to remote work, working to improve our diversity and equity issues, supporting the UAA chancellor search and other hiring needs of the system. He also led the combined UA Human resources office, developing improved service processes and building trust across the system. Because of his obvious leadership abilities, he has been recruited frs, ted ae
