

October 11, 2019

Dear UA Faculty and Staff,

It is a pleasure to share with you our progress on making sure our employees are paid fairly for

The University of Alaska Office of Human Resources (HR) completed the total compensation study in June 2019 and it was approved by the Board of Regents in September for implementation this year. We want to ensure that our salaries and benefits are market competitive, internally fair, and aligned with our shared strategic priorities and core principles. u compensation and benefits are in