

January

Dear UA Colleagues

University leadership continues to closely monitor the impact of the ongoing partial federal government shutdown on our students and employees. We have families who